

Forms and Surfaces Walker Zanger

Coconut Creek, Florida

Industrial building with a corporate image was the request for this 47,000 square foot building. The building houses a two story regional office, manufacturing area, processing area and storage. The project's delivery approach was the "design / build".

