

Golden Square Apartments

Pompano Beach, Florida

Pasquale Kuritzky Architecture was selected by Pinnacle Housing Group to providing site planning, design, construction documents and construction administration for the 31 acre Golden Acres community. This community is home for 302 new affordable rental apartments in two and three story buildings, along with a community building, two clubhouses and recreational play areas.

