

Private Residence

South Florida

Contemporary architecture is a balance of forms and proportions which becomes a timeless art sculpture. South Florida's settings enhance this style of architecture with its waterways and landscape. This residence is 12,000 square feet sited along 200' of intercostals' waterway. The estate offers private guest suites, theater, summer kitchen and entertaining pavilion.

