

Renaissance Village

Delray Beach, Florida

Pasquale Kuritzky Architecture was chosen by a Boston based developer as the design team for this Classical Mediterranean Renaissance Village in early 2000. The twenty, three story urban townhome community was awarded the City of Delray Beach award for “Excellence in Design” in 2003. The firm provided site planning, design, construction drawings and construction administration.

