

Yedra Polaris World Garden Furniture

Miami Gardens, Florida

Corporate image is an important factor when introducing a new company and product to the market place. Yedra Polaris retained Pasquale Kuritzky Architecture to design their first USA store in the Palmetto Expressway Business Center. This outdoor furniture and accessories company from Spain has now established a simple contemporary style of architecture for their stores.

