

Mendez University

Miramar, Florida

Mendez University is an accredited private university serving bilingual students offering degrees in business, health, education and hotel management. We were selected as the design team for their new South Florida location and provided architectural, engineering and interior design services for the 14 classroom, 30,000 square foot higher education facility located at the Miramar Park of Commerce.

