

Flagler Place

Fort Lauderdale, Florida

This new urban community sits at the corner of Andrews Avenue and Sistrunk Boulevard just to the west of a future commuter train. The mixed use development features 350 attainable apartments in 5 to 13 story buildings which surround a 5 level parking garage on 4 acres. The apartments will range in size from a 720 s.f. one bedroom to a 1,200 s.f. 3 bedroom. The retail space will occupy the street level along the Sistrunk commercial corridor and will connect to the city amenities that are north east of the site via an urban green belt park.

