

Palmetto Expressway Business Center

Miami Gardens, Florida

The existing shopping center was in need of new exterior design in order to compete in the market place. The concept was to be sensitive to the pedestrian scale through proper massing, architectural details, materials and color. The addition of a coloumade, awnings and a harmonious placement of signage has resulted in an accelerated leasing activity.

Before:

After: